Crossing Borders: Contemporary Music from Diverse Voices

04/06/2021

USU String Chamber Music presents Crossing Borders. The concert series features the music of Kerwin Young, Andrew Rodriguez, Timothy Peterson, Anjna Swaminathan, Michael-Thomas Foumai, Iman Habibi, Kenji Bunch, and Jessie Montgomery. Developed in partnership with the Gabriela Lena Frank Creative Academy of Music, the April 6 concert features the world premiere of “Loved and Feared” by Andrew Rodriguez and the April 8 concert features the world premiere of “Far from Righteous” by Kerwin Young. Each concert will be followed by a live talkback via Zoom.

April 6, 2021 Program will be as follows:
Anjna Swaminathan - Duplicity for String Quartet
Kenji Bunch - Three American Folk Hymn Settings for Two Violas
Jessie Montgomery - Strum for String Quartet
Andrew Rodriguez - Loved and Feared for Violin, Clarinet, Piano, and Percussion (World Premiere)

April 8, 2021 Program will be as follows:
Iman Habibi - Relics for Viola and Cello
Timothy Peterson - String Trio no. 1
Michael-Thomas Foumai - Song and Dance from String Quartet no. 2
Kerwin Young - Far from Righteous for String Quartet (World Premiere)
  I. Investigation
  II. Deception
  III. Removal

Following the concert join the

YouTube video player:
https://www.youtube.com/embed/Sav6kOigkac5603150

Following the concert join the

YouTube video player:
https://www.youtube.com/embed/hzZDl9w13pM5603150